

NALS PRACTICAL ASSIGNMENT

- 1) Create a Career Oriented presentation with 7 slides using transitions and animation.

Introduction

A career is not just a job- it's a lifelong journey of learning, growth, and achieving goals.

Career planning helps us:

- understand our interest and strengths
- choose the right educational path
- set short-term and long-term goal
- stay motivated and focused on success

❖ Building a career is about discovering your passion and turning it into your profession.

My career Goal

Short-term Goals:

- Learn programming languages like C and python
- Develop a strong foundation in networking and security concepts

Long-Term Goals:

- Become a skilled cybersecurity Analyst/Ethical Hacker
- Contribute to building safer digital systems

Skills & strengths

Technical skills:

- C, Python, HTML, CSS (learning)

Soft skills:

- Communication
- Problem-solving
- Teamwork
- Time management

Personal strengths:

- Curiosity
- Logical thinking
- Quick learner

Education & Achievements

- B. tech in computer science and engineering(cybersecurity)- Rungta international skills university
- Currently exploring programming languages like C and Python
- Learning through online resources and tutorials to improve technical skills
- Looking forward to participating in hackathon and seminars

Future plans

- Learn advanced cybersecurity tools and ethical hacking
- Get certification like CEH, CompTIA Security+
- Do internships in IT or cybersecurity companies
- Build a personal project or contribute to open-source security tools

conclusion

"A successful career is not built overnight-it's shaped through dedication, learning, and consistency."

Thank you! ★

Email: kumarinehak14@gmail.com